OVERVIEW

In 2008, Virginia launched Money Follows the Person (MFP) to provide extra supports and services to Virginians who choose to transition from long-term institutions into the community. MFP's vision is to create a system of long-term supports where funds "follow the person" from the facility to the community by covering extra service needs during the transition process.

MONEY FOLLOWS THE PERSON (MFP)

Money Follows the Person (MFP) provides options for community living to individuals who live in Nursing Facilities (NF), Long-Stay Hospitals (LSH), Institute for Mental Disorders (IMD), Psychiatric Residential Treatment Facilities (PRTF) and Intermediate Care Facilities for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/ID) for 90 days or more. The MFP initiative has three basic objectives:

- Provide participants who live in these Virginia long term care institutions more informed choices and options about where they can live and receive services;
- Transition participants from these institutions if they choose to live in the community; and
- Promote quality care through services that are person-centered, appropriate, and based on participant needs – Person Centered Practices and Planning (PCP).
